INDIGO JOE'S – The Gift That Keeps Giving
Local Suwanee Restaurant to Institute "Shadowbrook Night"

SUWANEE, November 26 – Local Sports Pub and Restaurant, Indigo Joe's, announces its "Gift That Keeps Giving" to residents of neighboring community, Shadowbrook, this holiday season. The family-friendly franchise that touts the tagline "What a Neighborhood Restaurant Should Be", Indigo Joe's of Suwanee wishes to extend a very special honor to its Shadowbrook neighbors by naming Wednesday night – "SHADOWBROOK NIGHT". Residents are invited to enjoy Joe's warm and cozy atmosphere, friendly service, wide screen TVs throughout, free WI-FI, full bar complete with signature specialty drinks plus 20 beers on tap, nightly events and extensive menu with a variety of choices sure to please any appetite ANY DAY of the week. But on Wednesday nights, Shadowbrook homeowners can also enjoy a savings of 25% off their food tab from 5 p.m. until close!

"In the spirit of holiday giving and with our One Year Anniversary fast approaching, we wanted to give back to our neighbors who've been so supportive of us this year," says fellow Shadowbrook resident and Indigo Joe's General Manager, Mark Linkowski. "We would love to see a steady flow of regulars from Shadowbrook dining in our booths or sitting at our bar, and know that they feel as comfortable here as they would at one of their neighbors' homes. We call this the 'Gift That Keeps Giving' because we're extending it during the holidays, but plan to honor 'Shadowbrook Night' year-round!"

During the holidays, Santa will make regular appearances at Joe's from 4-7 p.m. on December 6, 13 & 20 and Kids Eat FREE* All Day on Thursdays in December and Tuesdays all year long (*with purchase of an adult entrée). Indigo Joe's will also host a "Worry-Free New Years Eve" this year. Attendees of this FIRST TIME event will be treated to both a dinner AND breakfast buffet, live music and champagne toast for the price of $30 a ticket. Cash bar will be available during the event. Why not ring in the New Year at Joe's – and walk home afterward?! Free taxi service will be available to limited delivery area.

No matter what time of year, Indigo Joe's menu offers everything from buffalo wings to signature salads to Certified Angus burgers and steaks to baby back ribs and specialty chicken dishes. Patrons won't want to miss something sweet from Indigo Joe's dessert menu – the perfect finish to any meal.
